

• Job Summary:

This career opportunity is with Wipro Technology's Oracle Emerging Applications Practice within the Business Application Services division. This is a strategic unit created to cater to latest ERP market trend. Division is tasked with ensuring that we offer the right technology solutions to our clients by leveraging our strong and proven industry expertise.

- We are recruiting highly motivated and accomplished individuals from top tier universities for Finance & Accounting. Candidates should be able to clearly demonstrate an interest in pursuing a career in F&A consulting. Additionally, candidates must thrive in a dynamic and rapidly growing environment and IT. Those hired will join a successful team with a broad and deep range of experience across business and technology solution areas
- Consultants will be trained on finance modules of Oracle Package Applications like E-Business suite ERP, JD Edwards, Oracle Finance Cloud and PeopleSoft based on business plan. The training will include exhaustive hands on project Case Study based work which will equip you to deal with real life project situations. You will be expected to develop sound techno functional knowledge & hands on skills of the product to be able to become part of IT solution implementation team of Wipro.

- CTC: 5.25 PA

- Job Location: Chennai, Hyderabad