

Job Description :

We are seeking a highly motivated and experienced Cost Management Accountant to join our team in either Plant Costing, Business Finance or Corporate Costing roles. In this position, you will be responsible for managing and analyzing financial data, identifying cost-saving opportunities, and ensuring accurate and timely reporting of financial information. Depending on the role, the below responsibilities would be a part, also rank holders or have clear all groups in 1st attempts.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and maintain cost accounting systems, policies, and procedures to ensure accurate and timely financial reporting.
- Monitor and analyze manufacturing costs and financial performance against budget, forecast, and actual results.
- Prepare monthly and quarterly financial reports and variance analysis.
- Conduct financial analyses on capital expenditures, cost-saving initiatives, and other business projects.
- Develop and implement cost accounting methodologies, including standard costing and activity-based costing.
- Collaborate with cross-functional teams to identify and implement cost-saving opportunities.
- Assist in the preparation of annual budgets and monthly forecasts.
- Ensure compliance with accounting standards and regulatory requirements.
- Continuously monitor and improve accounting processes and systems to streamline and enhance the accuracy and efficiency of financial reporting.

Name of the position : Cost Management Accountant Trainee (CMA Trainee)

Eligibility criteria : CMA certification

CTC p.a. : 9 LPA (90% Fixed + 10% Variable) + 1 Lakh Joining Bonus

Job location : Mumbai/Halol/Chennai/Nagpur