

- An innovative, flexible and collaborative work environment
- Be part of an organisation that values diversity, inclusion, and respect
- Build your career your way

About The Role

Role Location: Bengaluru

Role Type: Permanent, Full-time

Apply lending/credit policy, product and Mortgage Insurance guidelines, and a high level of judgement, in assessing applicant's credit worthiness. Adhere to Group Credit Policy and Code of Banking Practice with the objective of maximising revenue and minimising risk. Research customer requests by gathering all relevant information/data, ensuring all available avenues and sources of information are investigated. Exercise thorough credit worthiness assessment and sound decision-making. Change management and delivery of desired strategic outcome. Ensure the process is followed to meet audit and risk compliance. Ensure timely and accurate processing of work for both internal and external customers in line with expectations and within the agreed criteria set out in Service Level Agreements and established policies. Ensure the required productivity targets are met on a daily basis for Home Loan Assessment vertical.

About You

To grow and be successful in this role, you will ideally bring the following:

- Graduates with strong financial background
- a good understanding of the home loan products
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Analytical and problem solving skill
- Accuracy and attention to detail